

The Powys Society
Newsletter No 81 March 2014

*That most delicate, most dainty, most entrancing little bird has lifted the sadness from my heart — only a second as it lighted on my roof and then was gone
— just long enough to accomplish a miracle.*

(Alyse Gregory, Journal 1948)